Top Tips: Follow these tips to make your video clear, engaging and enjoyable to watch.

Before you record:

Practise reading your script aloud

- Use a clear voice.
- Use expression (sound excited and interested).

Rehearse with a friend or family member

- Give each other friendly feedback.
- Try to say your lines without reading too much from the page, if possible.

When you're ready to record:

Use a suitable device

- A tablet, laptop, phone or iPad all work well.

Hold up the book or your picture

- Show the cover so people know what to look for.
- Proudly display any pictures you have drawn.

Look at the camera

- Pretend you're talking to a friend who wants a new book to read.

Sit or stand still

- Choose a spot where you can focus and not be interrupted.

Find a quiet space

- Less noise means better sound on your video.

Smile and enjoy it

- Your excitement will help others want to read your book.
- Enjoy sharing your passion for reading.
